2017 National Conference Finalists

Contestants from across the United States, Turkey, Japan, and Germany competed in more than 70 middle school and high school competitions at the 2017 national TSA conference in Orlando, FL last week. A complete list of national TSA conference finalists can be found here. Congratulations to all competitors!

2017 National TEAMS Finalists

More than 130 teams competed for Best in Nation titles at the national TEAMS (Tests of Engineering Aptitude, Mathematics and Science) competition, held during the national TSA conference. Teams competed in an essay challenge, an oral presentation, and a design and build challenge, all centered around the theme "Engineering the Environment." The list of national TEAMS finalists can be found here.

LEAP Legacy Chapter Winners Announced

2017 was the inaugural year for TSA's LEAP Legacy Chapter competition, where chapters competed by documenting their leadership skills and activities. National semifinalists at the middle and high school level competed at the 2017 national TSA conference, and the winners were announced onstage at the awards ceremony and presented with checks for their chapters. See the full list of LEAP Legacy Chapter national finalists here.
